The name of Dr. W. S. Cox. of St. Paris. was announced for membership. After a favorable report from the board of censors, Dr. Cox was admitted as a member.

The first business of the society was the reading of a paper on pheumonia by Dr. Miranda. The thesis was well received by the society and was discussed by every member present. There was quite a difference of opinion in regard to the local application to the chest, but all agreed as to the temperature of the room,

Dr. Colliver, of West Jefferson, presented a case of sprained foot and rupture of the annular ligament of nine months' standing. This case was discussed by several physicians present and a line of treatment agreed upon. The young man seems to have lost the use of his foot, and his only means of locomotion are by the use of crutches.
